

PUBLIC NOTICE

Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) First Public Hearing Notice

Notice is here given that Garland City will hold a public hearing on Wednesday, November 29, 2023, at 7 p.m. at 72 North Main Street. Garland City is eligible to apply to the Utah Department of Workforce Services for funding under the Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) Small Cities Program, a federally funded program administered by the State of Utah, Housing and Community Development Division (HCD). Garland City is eligible to apply for CDBG funding provided that Garland City meets applicable program requirements.

The purpose of the public hearing is to provide citizens with pertinent information about the Community Development Block Grant Program and to allow for discussion of possible applications. This public hearing will cover eligible activities, program requirements, and expected funding allocations in the region. The CDBG Program can fund a broad range of activities, including, but not limited to: construction of public works and facilities, e.g. water and sewer lines, fire stations, acquisition of real property, and provision of public services such as food banks or homeless shelters. In the event, that Garland City chooses to apply for CDBG funding, a second public hearing will be held at a later time to discuss the project. Further information can be obtained by contacting Linda King at (435)257-3118 ext. 1013.

In compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act, individuals needing special accommodations (including auxiliary communicative aids and services) during the hearing should notify Sharlet Anderson at (435)257-3118 ext. 1001 or the Garland City Offices, 72 North Main St., Garland, Utah, at least three days prior to the hearing. Individuals with speech and/or hearing impairments may call Relay Utah by dialing 711. Spanish Relay Utah: 1-888-346-3162.
